

rights, it is a mistake to do it. This is why often there is a disregard for so many laws because people are not even aware of them. They are unwitting, unintentional criminals. This is a criminal provision you are putting into the law and I don't think it ought to be there.

SPEAKER MARVEL: Senator Lewis.

SENATOR LEWIS: Speaker Hefner, I mean, Speaker Marvel, I move the previous question.

SPEAKER MARVEL: Do I see five hands to cease debate? I do. All those in favor of ceasing debate vote aye, opposed vote no. Record.

CLERK: 27 ayes, 2 nays to cease debate, Mr. President.

SPEAKER MARVEL: Debate ceases. The Chair recognizes Senator Wesely to close on his motion.

SENATOR WESELY: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I appreciate the time you provided us to discuss this matter and I am sorry it took so long. I guess it points out the need to send this bill back to committee because we have only started in the discussion on this bill evidently from the floor debate. There is a lot of questions, a lot of controversy and the question before you now, the motion that I have made, is to return this bill back to committee and it is not a question of whether this is a good or bad bill as amended. The question is should there be a full public discussion of this bill as amended. That is the key question. There hasn't been a hearing on this amendment. There hasn't been consideration this session on these proposals and I think it is absolutely mandatory that we should always have a chance to offer the public a chance to speak out on a bill and I just think that is the basic fundamental principle that we are dealing with here, and with the controversy involved, I don't think we should take a lot of time on the floor with this legislation. So let's send it back to committee, let's clear the air on the matter, let's take care of the problems that have been identified and then let's get it back up here and get the job done that we want to accomplish with this bill but let's not spend a lot of time on the floor debating it. Let's get it back to committee and work out the problems.

SPEAKER MARVEL: The motion is the adoption of the Wesely amendment. All those in favor vote aye, opposed no. This is the motion to return the bill to the committee. Have you
